Article 2 | Commission

- 2.1 The Partner earns a percentage of every payment their customer actually makes, after any discount, excluding taxes and net of any refund, including instalments.
- 2.2 The rate is set out in the approval notice, the partner agreement and the partner dashboard, and is confidential.
- 2.3 The Partner's customers receive a discount when they use the Partner's code, as set out in the approval notice.
- 2.4 No commission is due on free products or zero-value orders.

Article 3 | Crediting customers to the Partner

- 3.1 A purchase is credited to the Partner whenever the Partner's code is used.
- 3.2 A purchase is credited to the Partner if made within (60) days of visiting the Partner's link.
- 3.3 A customer registered by the Partner (by email or phone) is credited to the Partner if they buy within (90) days of registration, provided the customer agreed to share their details.
- 3.4 After the first purchase, the customer remains linked to the Partner for one year. If the Partner brings a new customer during the last two months of that year, the link is extended for a further year.
- 3.5 No commission is due on our existing customers, or on the Partner's own purchases or purchases made using the Partner's details.
- 3.6 If a customer linked to one partner uses another partner's code within the first year of the link, the customer remains with the original partner unless the agreement provides otherwise.

Article 4 | Confirmation of commission and refunds

- 4.1 Commission is confirmed once the (24)-hour refund window has passed, unless the payment is refunded.
- 4.2 If a payment is refunded or charged back after the commission was paid, the corresponding amount is deducted from the Partner's next payouts.

- 5.2 It is paid in US dollars to partners outside Egypt, or in Egyptian pounds at the exchange rate on the payout day.
- 5.3 The Partner bears transfer fees and any taxes due from them, and provides an invoice or receipt if the Partner is a legal entity.

Article 6 | Marketing rules

- 6.1 The Partner shall not promise a cure or guaranteed results.
- 6.2 Accreditation wording is used exactly as given, and ABAT® and QBA® are written exactly so as registered trademarks of QABA.
- 6.3 Fake discounts and urgency or scarcity claims are prohibited.
- 6.4 Excessive repeated messaging that amounts to spam, search advertising on the ABA 4 Change name, and publishing the code on coupon sites are prohibited.
- 6.5 Content creators disclose that a post is a partnership or advertisement and use the approved images and wording.

Article 7 | Data and privacy

- 7.1 The Partner sees only their customers' initials and the amounts, never their contact details.
- 7.2 When registering a customer, the Partner confirms that the customer agreed to share their details with us; we keep a record of this under Egypt's Personal Data Protection Law No. (151) of 2020.

Article 8 | Confidentiality

- 9.2 We may end the partnership immediately for breach of these terms or for conduct that harms customers or our reputation.
